RULE SUMMARY

NOTE: "Insurer" in this summary includes self-insured employers.

The agency proposes to amend OAR chapter 436 to improve organization, clarity and consistency, and to eliminate redundancy. More specifically:

The agency proposes to amend OAR chapter 436, division 110, "Preferred Worker Program." These proposed rules address: Definitions of "date of eligibility" and "date of hire," clarifying eligibility for preferred worker program incentives; amendment of required notices to employers; timeframes for employers to request premium exemption from their insurers.

The agency proposes to amend OAR chapter 436, division 120, "Vocational Assistance to Injured Workers." These proposed rules address: The definition of "authorized return to work plan"; amendment of required notices to workers as well as reorganization/clarification of notice requirements; reasons for ending vocational eligibility; criteria for reimbursement of training costs and payment of temporary disability if a worker begins training before eligibility determination; requirements for vocational counselors and interns to obtain training on the vocational assistance and reemployment assistance rules; eliminating the direct experience requirement for interns; standards of conduct for registered vocational assistance providers and certified individuals.

The agency proposes to amend OAR chapter 436, division 160, "Electronic Data Interchange; Medical Bill Data." These proposed rules address: Medical bill data reporting, including: time frames for moving from testing to production; time frames to submit corrected bill data; required (matching) data for cancel and replace transactions; accepted, disabling claim volume thresholds for insurers to become subject to reporting requirement or eligible for exemption from continued reporting; time frames to correct and resubmit rejected transactions; reporting of corrections when specific bill data changes; reporting of DRG codes; timeliness and accuracy expectations for medical bill data reporting and penalties for non-compliance. The agency also proposes to move rules related to electronic reporting of proof of coverage data from division 160 to a new division within chapter 436, division 162.

The agency proposes to adopt OAR chapter 436, division 162, "Electronic Data Interchange; Proof of Coverage." Most of the rule text has either been copied or moved from OAR 436-160, so requirements for proof of coverage and medical data reporting will be in separate rule divisions. These proposed rules do not change any existing reporting requirement for proof of coverage.

Request for public comment: The Workers' Compensation Division requests public comment on whether other options should be considered for achieving the rules' substantive goals while reducing the negative economic impact of the rules on business.

Address questions to: Fred Bruyns, Rules Coordinator; phone 503-947-7717; fax 503-947-7514; e-mail fred.h.bruyns@state.or.us Proposed rules are available on the Workers' Compensation Division's website: <http://wcd.oregon.gov/policy/rules/rules.html#proprules> or telephone 503-947-7717 or fax 503-947-7514.

Fiscal and Economic Impact, including Statement of Cost of Compliance: References to "insurers" in the summary below includes "self-insured employers." The following is a list of significant estimated fiscal/economic impacts on persons and organizations affected by proposed changes to OAR chapter 436.

1. Impact on state agencies, units of local government and the public (ORS 183.335(2)(b)(E)):

- The agency projects that revisions to OAR 436-110, "Preferred Worker Program," should have a small positive impact on Oregon employers. The changes may increase the number of preferred workers who can offer incentives to Oregon employers to hire them, resulting in a small increase in demand on the Workers' Benefit Fund. However, the impact on the Workers' Benefit Fund should be minor and the integrity of the Fund would not be harmed by the proposed changes. The agency projects a small initial cost for insurers to amend their notices to employers.
- The agency projects that revisions to OAR 436-120, "Vocational Assistance to Injured Workers," would:
 - Create a small initial cost for vocational rehabilitation organizations to revise notices to workers; and reduce recruiting costs for these organizations due to the elimination of the direct experience requirement for vocational interns.
 - Create a small initial cost for insurers to revise notices to workers; increase costs for affected insurers, with a corresponding benefit to workers, if the insurer pays for training under certain circumstances if a worker begins training before being determined eligible, though this is a very infrequent occurrence; and produce a small positive effect for insurers and other users of these rules due to some general streamlining of the rules.
- The agency projects that revisions to OAR 436-160, "Electronic Data Interchange; Medical Bill Data," would:

- Produce some near-term programming costs for insurers and any companies that report medical data for insurers. Because programming costs will vary by company, the agency cannot estimate a dollar cost; however, by comparison to previous revisions to these reporting rules, the impact of these rule changes should be minor.
- Establish that penalties may be issued to insurers that fall below performance expectations for accuracy and timeliness of reporting. The overall impact should not be large, though may be significant for companies that have serious shortfalls in reporting performance.
- The agency projects that additional proposed changes should not have significant economic impacts on any persons or businesses, including small businesses.

2. Cost of compliance effect on small business (ORS 183.336):

a. Estimate the number of small businesses and types of business and industries with small businesses subject to the rule:

Proposed changes to the “Preferred Worker Program” rules should provide a small positive fiscal impact for Oregon employers. All Oregon employers that carry workers’ compensation insurance on their employees are eligible for preferred worker program benefits. Oregon Employment Department data shows that the great majority of Oregon employers are small businesses (as defined in ORS 183.310(10)), though large businesses employ more than one-half of the workforce.

Proposed changes to the rules governing “Vocational Assistance to Injured Workers” would create a small initial increase in costs for vocational rehabilitation organizations to amend notices to workers, but also reduce recruiting costs due to the elimination of the direct experience requirement for vocation interns. Bulletin 151 lists 94 vocational rehabilitation providers that have been registered by the Department of Consumer and Business Services. Many of these providers are small businesses as defined in ORS 183.310.

b. Projected reporting, recordkeeping and other administrative activities required for compliance, including costs of professional services:

Reporting: The proposed rule changes should create no additional reporting costs for small businesses.

Record-keeping: The proposed rule changes should create no additional record-keeping costs for small businesses.

Other administrative activities and costs of professional services: The proposed rule changes should create no additional administrative or professional services costs for small businesses.

c. Equipment, supplies, labor and increased administration required for compliance:

Equipment: The proposed rule changes do not require the purchase of equipment to achieve compliance.

Supplies: The proposed rule changes do not require the purchase of supplies to achieve compliance.

Labor: The proposed rule changes could result in some initial increased labor costs to revise notices to workers.

Administration: The proposed rule changes do not require increased administrative costs to achieve compliance.

How were small businesses involved in the development of this rule? A representative from the Office of the Ombudsman for Small Business attended an advisory committee meeting regarding OAR 436-110, “Preferred Worker Program.” Vocational assistance providers participated in the advisory committee meeting regarding OAR 436-120, “Vocational Assistance to Injured Workers.”

Administrative Rule Advisory Committee consulted? Yes. Advisory committees met on 5/26/2010, 5/28/2010, 6/3/2010, and 6/21/2010.

436-110-0325 Premium Exemption General Provisions

(1) The purpose of ~~P~~premium ~~E~~xemption is to provide an incentive to employers to hire ~~P~~preferred ~~W~~workers.

(2) Premium ~~E~~xemption releases an employer from paying workers' compensation insurance premiums and premium assessments on a ~~P~~preferred ~~W~~worker for three years from the date premium exemption started. While using ~~P~~premium ~~E~~xemption, the employer does not report, and the insurer cannot use, the ~~P~~preferred ~~W~~worker's payroll for the calculation of insurance premiums or premium assessments. However, the employer must report and pay workers' compensation employer assessments and withhold employee contributions as required by OAR 436-070. The employer must start paying insurance premiums and premium assessments when ~~P~~premium ~~E~~xemption ends.

(3) Premium ~~E~~xemption cannot be used for regular employment unless the job is modified to accommodate the worker's injury-caused limitations.

(4) To qualify for premium exemption the employer at injury must bring back its preferred worker to a new or modified job and notify its insurer within 90 days from the date of eligibility or the date of hire, whichever is later. Premium exemption starts on the date of hire or the date of eligibility, whichever is later.

(5) If a worker's preferred worker eligibility has not been determined as of the date of hire, the worker or the employer at injury may request a preferred worker eligibility review. If the worker is eligible, the Workers' Compensation Division will issue a preferred worker identification card to the worker. The employer must notify its insurer of the worker's preferred worker status within 90 days of the eligibility date found on the preferred worker identification card. Premium exemption starts on the date of hire or the date of eligibility, whichever is later.

(4) If within 90 days from the date of hire the employer at injury notifies the insurer they

(5)~~(6)~~ If the employer is not the employer-at-injury, the worker discloses ~~P~~preferred ~~W~~worker status to that employer, and the employer notifies the insurer within 90 days from the date of hire that they have hired a ~~P~~preferred ~~W~~worker, ~~P~~premium ~~E~~exemption starts on the date of hire.

~~(6) If an injured worker's eligibility for preferred worker status has not been determined as of the date of hire, the worker or the employer-at-injury who is reemploying the worker may request eligibility determination. The date the division determines the worker is eligible is the eligibility date and Premium Exemption starts on the eligibility date.~~

(7) If a worker covered under ~~P~~premium ~~E~~exemption incurs a compensable injury or occupational disease during the ~~P~~premium ~~E~~exemption period, the employer must notify its insurer of the injury and the worker's ~~P~~preferred ~~W~~worker status. (a) Reimbursements will be made for the life of the claim;

(b) Reimbursable claim costs include disability benefits, medical benefits, vocational costs in accordance with OAR 436-120-0720, Claim Disposition Agreements in accordance with ORS 656.236, Disputed Claim Settlements in accordance with ORS 656.289, stipulations, as well as attorney fees awarded the worker or the worker's beneficiaries, and administrative costs;

(c) Reimbursable claim costs for denied claims include costs incurred up to the date of denial, but are limited to benefits the insurer is obligated to pay under ORS 656 and diagnostic tests, including independent medical examinations necessary to determine compensability of the claim;

(d) The administrative cost factor to be applied to claim costs will be as published in Bulletin 316; and

(e) The claim must not be used for ratemaking, individual employer rating, dividend calculations, or in any manner that would affect the employer's insurance premiums or premium assessments with the present or a future insurer. The insurer must be able to document that claim data will not affect the employer's rates or dividend.

(2) The insurer must request Claim Cost Reimbursement as follows:

(a) Requests for reimbursement must be made within one year of the end of the quarter within which payment was made;

(B) Payment certification statement; and

(C) Any other information the division deems necessary.

(3) Requests for reimbursement must not include:

(f) Costs reimbursed or outstanding requests for reimbursement from the Reopened Claims Program, Retroactive Program, or the fund; or

(g) Reimbursable Employer-at-Injury Program costs.

(4) Periodically, the division will audit the physical file of the insurer to validate the amount reimbursed. Reimbursed amounts must be refunded to the division and, as applicable, future reimbursements will be denied if, upon audit, any of the following is found to apply:

(a) Reimbursement has been made for any of the items specified in section (3) of this rule;

(b) If claim acceptance as a new injury rather than an aggravation is questionable and the rationale for acceptance has not been reasonably documented;

(c) The separate payments of compensation have not been documented;

(d) The insurer included claim costs in any dividend or retrospective rating or experience rating calculations;

(e) The insurer is unable to provide applicable records relating to experience rating, retrospective rating, or dividend calculations at the time of audit or within 14 working days thereafter.

(5) If the conditions described in subsections (4)(a) through (e) of this rule are corrected and all other criteria of the rules are met, eligibility for reimbursement may be reinstated. If reimbursement eligibility is reinstated, any moneys previously reimbursed and then recovered will be reimbursed again according to these rules.

436-110-0335 Wage Subsidy General Provisions

Wage ~~S~~subsidy provides an employer with partial reimbursement of a worker's gross wages for a specified period. Wage ~~S~~subsidy benefits are subject to the following conditions:

(1) The effective date of a Wage Subsidy Agreement is mutually agreed to by the division, employer, and worker if applicable;

(2) A ~~W~~wage ~~S~~subsidy is limited to a duration of 183 calendar days and a monthly reimbursement rate of 50 percent, except for a worker with an exceptional disability as defined in OAR 436-110-0005(9). For a worker with an exceptional disability, the ~~W~~wage ~~S~~subsidy duration is limited to 365 calendar days and a monthly reimbursement rate of 75 percent;

(3) A Wage Subsidy Agreement may be interrupted once for reasonable cause and extended to complete the Wage Subsidy Agreement on a whole workday basis. Reasonable cause includes, but is not limited to, personal or family illness, death in the worker's family, pregnancy of the worker or worker's spouse, a compensable injury to the worker, participation in an Employer-at-Injury Program, or layoff. A layoff must be a minimum of 10 consecutive work days. A period of time during which the employer is without workers' compensation insurance coverage is not "reasonable cause," and no extension will be granted;

(4) A ~~P~~preferred ~~W~~worker's pay structure must be the same as the pay structure for other workers employed in similar jobs by the employer;

ORDER NO. 10-XXX

(5) Wages subject to reimbursement must be within the prevailing wage range for that occupation. The prevailing wage range is determined by the following method:

- (a) First, examine the wages paid by the employer for other workers doing the same job;
- (b) If no other workers are doing the same job, a labor market survey of the local labor market may be conducted; and
- (c) If the labor market survey does not support the wage rate requested, the division will determine the wage subject to reimbursement;

(6) ~~P~~preferred ~~W~~worker ~~P~~program ~~W~~wage ~~S~~ubsidies may not be combined with a wage subsidy for a training plan under OAR 436-120;

(7) A worker-activated and employer at injury-activated wage subsidy can not be used for the same job with the employer at injury;

(8) If the worker's employer changes during the Wage Subsidy Agreement period due to a sale of the business, incorporation, or merger, the agreement can be transferred to the new employer by an addendum to the agreement approved by the division as long as the worker's job remains the same and the new employer is eligible under OAR 436-110-0310(1);

(9) A completed and signed Wage Subsidy Reimbursement Request form must be submitted to the division with a copy of the worker's payroll records. The payroll record must state the dates (daily or weekly), hours, wage rate, and the worker's gross wage. Payroll records must be a legible copy and compiled in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures; and

(10) All requests for reimbursement must be made within one year of the Wage Subsidy Agreement end date.

(11) Wage ~~S~~ubsidy cannot be used for "regular employment" as defined in OAR 436-110-0005(13) unless the job has been modified to overcome the worker's injury-caused permanent restrictions.
